The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 3, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Hatch) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of the battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company B. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Hatch) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. A. L. G. O.

The 19th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 2, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1862, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was now afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 13th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

Cand. Union St

Dear Sir

I have received your communication of the 21st inst. through the Post Office at the place.

Altho' I had the pleasure of a short interview with you since the date of your letter, yet it is my duty to reply.

The Company I command, by a mutual understanding between Col Walter C. Brown and myself, have been placed at this point, to remain a short time, in order to form the basis for a Regiment, which for immediate marching orders to be issued by Col W. C. Brown.

I believe the Company to come from the 1st Regt. by his consent, I will be ready to accept of it. Having had to know as one of the conditions before this, and my Company being already located, thus long association with them will be under his command and I will be with him and them.

Col Brown looks upon this as a certainty. Should it be so, his command is formed, he fears it will greatly delay his operations.

These facts are set forth, to inform our position and let you see it. The Company has been near six months

Never without pay, if it is but just they should be paid something before starting, the needs are of some of them are great.

The guns with which the company is armed consist of about an equal number of Hall's Carbines, Rifles and Double barreled Shot guns.

There is not over 20 pistols nor more than 40 or 50 Brown Besses in the company have we any Sabres.

Should we be ordered away we have no facilities for transportation, unless furnished by Col Bates which he kindly offers to do, if Col Brown is permitted to go with his contemplated command.

Very respectfully
Yours A. S. Smith

Sir,

Some two weeks since, while Lieut. Maynard's kind son, was at this place, I put in an application on account of ill health for a leave of absence to the Country, duly signed by my attending Physician, and the Capt. Surgeon of the Battalion, -

Altho I am well and reported for duty, my health yet requires a change of climate, from the Coast to the Country for restoration.

As I have heard nothing from my application, since it passed the office of Lieut. Deane Hollendock, when I understood it had been resolved and sent to your office, I am induced to believe - it has (through some accident been mistaken. Will you be so good as to inform me, if it is yet in your office, and whether approved or disapproved by the Commanding Genl.

Very respectfully,

your Obedt Servt

Sir

For reasons of my own please answer the following questions viz 1. Is the Captain of company entitled to the title of Major? 2. Is the title of Lieutenant of the Battalion entitled to the Captaincy of the company? or is the Lieutenant of the company entitled to the Captaincy?

Very respectfully
I R Fenton.

Please answer and address me at

Sir Robert J. Samuel
A. A. C. G. S.

Sir

I have the honor to represent that I have been in the Confederate Service since the first commencement of the war with the U. S. Army. I have been a regular bearer of absence from District No. 2, except an an a Surgeon's Certificate last December which I have not made use of. It was so long in reaching me that I had recovered sufficiently to be in the District. I have followed and joined the Command at Camp & Day Johnson since which time I have been performing duty on the line of District No. 2. I have the pleasure to command the within 50 miles and to visit my home in 100 miles County, to make some repairs and to attend to some business which has been long neglected to my great regret. And now that there is but little to do and understanding that Col Brown with the other portion of the Regt will be here in a few days.

I most respectfully ask thirty (30) days leave of absence, to take effect from another date after is present with the Command.

Should an emergency arise I will be close at hand and ready for service. I remain Sir, very respectfully your obedient servant

Sir

An order has just been recd from 1st Lieut. Dr. H. A. for a detail of five (5) men to be sent to Capt. Pond's for duty, stating "that they will have to remain some time". I have obeyed the order but beg leave to state, that the duties imposed on the few companions of Cavalry of this Regt now on the Island is already arduous, & at some of the stations, the men are on duty every other day, if the number is diminished, it will be impossible to perform (properly) the duties for which they were assigned to the Island. I hope the Brig. Genl. will see the propriety of sending three details from the 1st Infantry, & will relieve the details from this command & leave the honor to remain

The 35th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to H, was formed about April 2, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company H was transferred from the 9th (Pennine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain W. H. Dancy's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was afterward assigned to this command as (3d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies on October 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 4th Texas Cavalry) to the 35th Battalion Texas Cavalry. This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to E, was formed about April 2, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 6th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company B was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from the companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company M. This battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also assigned to Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 25th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & E. & C.

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to E, was formed about April 3, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company H was transferred to the 7th (Pensacola's) Battalion Texas Cavalry March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain W. Hargrove's independent Company Texas Cavalry was then assigned to this command as (3d) Company H. This battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 12, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 2nd (Harris) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 2nd Texas Cavalry). This organization was also assigned to Brown's Battalion Texas Cavalry but it was officially transferred to the 2nd Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. C.

The 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to B, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1862, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 12th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 12th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 25th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & L. G. O.

The 19th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to E, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company F was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and E of the same regiment. Company G was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was then afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 12th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 29th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

Remarks:

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to E, was formed about April 2, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 25th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

Abstract

The 1944 election of Franklin D. Roosevelt as President of the United States was a landmark event in American history. It was the first time that a Democrat had won the presidency since the Reconstruction era. Roosevelt's victory was a result of his leadership during the Great Depression and his role in leading the United States into World War II. His New Deal policies had helped to bring the economy back to life, and his leadership during the war had earned him the respect and admiration of the American people. Roosevelt's second term in office was marked by the continuation of his New Deal policies and the final victory over the Axis powers in 1945. His death in 1946 marked the end of an era, but his legacy as one of the greatest presidents in American history remains intact.

The 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 2, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Hater's) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (3d) Company E. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 12th (Hater's) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 25th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

The records show that one Elliot E. Hanson, corporal and private, Company E, Brown's Battalion Texas Mounted Volunteers, which subsequently became Company E, 35th Regiment (Brown's) Texas Cavalry, Confederate States Army, enlisted 1 May 1862 at Columbia. The company muster roll for January and February 1864, last on file, shows him present.

His name appears on Regimental Returns of the above-named organization for the months of March, May, June, October and November 1864.

He was surrendered by General E. Kirby Smith, C. S. A. and was paroled 26 June 1865 at Houston, Texas. His place of residence at that time is shown as Brazoria County, Texas.

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to E, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company B was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain W. Mangrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company B. This battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Texas Cavalry) to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. This organization was then designated the 15th Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 15th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. S. I. G. O.

The 18th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to R, was formed about April 2, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1862, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain J. H. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was afterward assigned to this command as (G) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies October 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was attached to the Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 25th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

by order Lt. Col Brown.

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to E, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from Companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain J. B. Brown's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was transferred to this command as (2d) Company B. This company was transferred to a regiment of ten companies on April 11, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 1st (Gentry) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Texas Cavalry) to the 1st Texas Cavalry. This organization was then designated as the 1st Texas Cavalry. The 1st Texas Cavalry was then designated as the 1st Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. C.

General.

In accordance with an Act to organize and organize a General Staff for the Armies in the field" as announced in Gen Order N^o 53, Richmond, Dec 15/64
I have the honor to request that Lieut
A. O. Root of Nichols Battery Light Artillery be appointed Major and Asst Adjt Genl and assigned to duty on my Staff.
Lieut Alexander Porter Root was born in Texas - is 26 years of age - and is a citizen of Texas. He entered the service over two years ago, as a private in 1st Regt Tex. Co. was detailed as clerk in the Asst Adjt Genl's Office of Maj Gen Magruder for some months, and was promoted to 2nd Lieut of Nichols Light Battery in Mar 1863, and served through the Campaign of that year in Louisiana. He has been acting Adjut on my Staff since Aug 1st 1864.
My former A. A. Genl was Captain

Wm Edings of South Carolina appointed by Decree of War in 1842, and I did not bring him with me, when ordered in Aug 1843 to report for duty to Lieut Genl J. N. Holmes in Arkansas

Capt Edings was appointed in the Spring of 1843 Asst Insp Genl upon Genl Beauregards Staff, No 2^d Charleston S.C.

Not having my orders with me. I cannot give the dates of these appointments.

It would be proper to add that when I came to Arkansas, I was prohibited by the Asst Genl from carrying any but my personal Staff with me.

Lieut Post is well educated and possessing experience both as a private and an Officer. I trust his appointment will be confirmed, for the benefit of the Service and my own satisfaction.

I am with much respect

Yours &c. &c. &c.

Sir

I beg leave respectfully to represent to the Col Commanding the condition of the Battery which I at present command, desiring a candid and exact statement so much an act of justice to him as to myself.

The Battery at present consists of six guns.

The withdrawal of the State Troops, and the recent devotion from the Company, have the total number of enlisted men present for duty fifty five. Of these there are eight on extra daily duty as teamsters and four as cooks, leaving a total available of forty eight.

The number of drivers, provided there were a sufficient number of horses, necessary, is thirty six. This leaves twelve Cannons for the six pieces or two for a piece. As however there are not enough horses for the whole battery, there would be three Cannons to each piece including the Sergeant or chief of men. It is scarcely necessary for you to say that the battery cannot be fought for any length of time with this very limited number of men.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant

Very Respectfully

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to E, was formed about April 2, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company B. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 15th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 15th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. C. G.

Adjutant General's Office
Company C July 11th 1864

Lieut. J. H. S. S. S.

Dear Sir

Thank you for your letter of the 10th inst.

and for the information that you have received from the Adjutant General's Office in the above named Company & Regiment. I am very glad to hear that you have been in the service of the Confederate States since the 1st day of January 1864. That he has not been on leave of absence within the last twelve months. That he has never been detached from his command and never been reported absent without leave or absent on sick leave. There are three officers present for duty with the Company.

He asks for a leave of absence for thirty days to visit his mother who lives a distance of five hundred miles from this place. In the midst of the late operations of the army.

He is very anxious as to the condition in which his commanding board may have left him. His mother is without the protection of any male person, all his brothers being in the army.

Should the Adjutant General's Office for thirty days be disapproved, then he requests such time for recreation and attendance on other business. He has neglected for a long time of interest to him as many remain just and proper.

Adjutant General's Office

Galveston Island July 16th 1864.

Approved and respectfully forwarded with the request that Lieut. S. S. is a faithful officer.

Hoping that his petition may meet with favorable consideration.

S. S. S.

W. H. S.

Very respectfully,
A. P. S. S.

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 2, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Hates) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain M. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was then afterward assigned to this command as (3d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Hates) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 15th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

The 19th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Hater) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1862, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was then afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company B. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 12th (Hater) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 25th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & L. G. O.

(1st) Company G was transferred to the 7th (Fountain's) Battalion Texas Cavalry March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 13th (Hates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

A letter in my company has been given with chronic inflammation in the some months and they were a very long for military service. This application for discharge has been approved the land a large stock of cattle in joint interest with a partner who is a member of my Co of the business to himself and of course is a partner. There is no one left at home to look after the several interests in the

Sir:

While stationed at Harris Station on the Colorado River I was ordered by you to establish a Depot for Supplies for the Army at some suitable point on the Route to Yuma and about a days march from the lower place. I selected a place and informed you of the by letter. It was at the Sandy Crossing on the Colorado River about ten miles from the mouth of the Colorado. I have been times from this time to the camp where your letter came me, ordering the removal of my duties to the town of Mesa Verde. I therefore left temporarily in charge of the Supplies at Harris. By Mr. Bolin (the Engineer) there about was instructed by me to have fifteen hundred bushels of corn and his household business of more sent to the New Orleans Depot. Mr. Bolin now informs me that there cannot be had to do the hauling and consequently no Supplies have been taken to that Depot.
I do not know who was authorized to deliver or attend to the delivery of the stores in that section (Mesa Verde) but my impression is that some one of the United States Army must have been required and was not in compliance by them for this purpose. I ask for information as to the cause & show for the same. I am, Sir,

Headquarters Matagorda

Dec 20th 1863 -

Post Office

Sir -

Upon my arrival with my Company at Matagorda Bay on the Colorado River, some five days ago, I immediately proceeded to Matagorda to carry into execution the instructions of Mr. Chief Magruder, in reference to the Sailing Boats and Ships in Matagorda Bay East of Palacios and the Colorado River. I gave notice by order to all owners and Captains of Boats of every description that they should immediately take their Boats to Canyon Creek for Safety, and in the event they failed to comply with the order I would be compelled to destroy them. Post Surgeon of my Command was ordered to search the Boats which under a previous order of the Provost Marshal of Matagorda had been sent to the River and small Bayous leading into it and to report to me the result of his discoveries. This day one week ago, while in search of Boats in the west branch of the Colorado River I came upon nine men engaged in raising the Schooner "Long Bankhart" (which had been scuttled) for the purpose of converting her into a Gunboat. We notified these men if they owned any Boat then lying in the river to take them into Canyon Creek. During that night these men procured a small sailing Boat and went over to the enemy side of the river where they came into Matagorda Bay one hour ago on the "Lizzie Bacon". The other six were near the lower Bay. These vessels could only have been protected by a guard a "log" of land, Channel and which they have been protected by the Gunboat, and no man can reach either to the Provost Marshal of this place or Capt. Smith who had his intentions properly pointed for the protection of the river. On the receipt of these orders I have stated about 1840. I moved my headquarters to this place and now have the books not dismantled or books collected and placed under guard. I shall use every precaution to prevent any communication with the enemy or the escape of negroes within the line. The President of the Council (Capt. Sutcliffe) of this Army at this time cannot ascertain the number of men either on hand and I am not sure that I have not about Fifty thousand men. I am accordingly, I hereby call the attention of the Army to this as a matter of conversation with me being under the impression that Forty thousand oration of the Army of Virginia had been occurred here, and established a Ferry Line miles above town on the river for the purpose of rapid communication with the detachment of men stationed at Palacios, and the line of travel from this to that point. In

Reports Enemy's movements

Extract

Head Quarters, Malagosa

June 15th 1864

Mr. H. Robinson,

A. A. A. Genl.,

Sir:

Through the scouts of Capt. Morrison, Comd Marine Dept of Malagosa, I learn this morning that the enemy on yesterday blew up two of the Forts at Saloria, and tore down all the war-houses which they had constructed, and that their movements indicated an immediate evacuation of the place.

No guns could be seen from their [our scouts] point of observation, in any of the Forts, and consequently must have been removed. One vessel left early in the morning, very heavily laden, bound eastward.

Three Transports were lying in view, and near them about five hundred Troops busily engaged, supposed to be preparing to go aboard of the vessels.

On Saturday last a party came to Decrow's house and took off all his wool, destroyed his furniture, and defaced his dwelling in every way possible. This house is situated on the peninsula and just opposite Saloria, and from this point Young Decrow (the scout) reports what has been stated above.

The 18th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Hates) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain J. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was then afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company H. The 12th (Horse) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 3, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 42d (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized March 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of the battalion. Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain R. W. Hancock's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (Bn) Company M. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 13th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 8th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

The 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 3, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Cavalry March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was then afterward assigned to this command as (3d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 12th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

Transferred to Brown's Battalion, 1862.

This company was known at various times as Captain Hamilton's Company, Company L and (2d) Company D, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, and (2d) Company D, 18th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 18th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 430, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, E and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 491, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 8, 1862, and formed the 18th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 18th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 305, Hdqrs. 25th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 18th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 24 and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 61, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, 18th Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 18th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brown's Coast Regiment.

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to E, was formed about April 3, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was then afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company M. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies December 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 15th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. C. O.

The 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 2, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1862, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain A. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company B. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 13th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 13th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry and it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. S. & C.

The 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 3, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Hates) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1863, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1863, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. 1st. Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1864, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain R. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (3d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 13th (Hates) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to G, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Hates) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain J. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company B. The battalion was increased to a regiment of four companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Hates) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 15th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also assigned to the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & L. G. C.

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Hates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1862, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Hates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 2nd Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 25th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 2, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1862, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain R. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was then afterward assigned to this command as (3d) Company B. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 25th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & L. G. O.

The 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (dist) Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1862, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Harrrore's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (3d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 13th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 2nd Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

Remarks:

The 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 2, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain R. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 12th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & L. U. C.

The 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 3, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. 1st Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Company Texas Cavalry. Captain R. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (ad) Company B. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 12th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

Remarks:

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Hates) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain R. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Hates) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers). Detailed description of Figure 1: This is a Western blot image showing the protein levels of p53 and p21 in H1299 cells. The blot is divided into four vertical lanes. The first lane is labeled 'Control'. The second lane is labeled 'Doxorubicin'. The third lane is labeled 'Doxorubicin + Curcumin'. The fourth lane is labeled 'Doxorubicin + Curcumin + Curcumin'. On the right side of the blot, molecular weight markers are indicated in kilodaltons (kDa): 43, 36, 29, 21, 14, 12, 10, 7.5, 6.6, 5.5, 4.5, 3.5, 2.5, 2.0, 1.5, 1.0, 0.75, 0.5, 0.35, 0.25, 0.15, 0.1. The p53 protein band is located at approximately 43 kDa, and the p21 protein band is located at approximately 21 kDa. The p53 band is present in all lanes, with varying intensity. The p21 band is present in the Doxorubicin, Doxorubicin + Curcumin, and Doxorubicin + Curcumin + Curcumin lanes, but is absent or very faint in the Control lane.

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Companies A to D, was formed about April 3, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 6th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of the battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Bargar's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was then afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company B. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

Captain Jos. S. Lybed. A. S. M. Brown's Regiment having applied for a certificate on which to ground an application for leave of absence I do hereby certify that I have conferred with and seen this officer and find that he has been suffering for the last three months with Intermittent Fever and that in consequence thereof he is, in my opinion, unfit for duty - I further declare my belief that he will not be able to resume his duties in less period than thirty days I therefore recommend that he be granted leave

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 13th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

The 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Hatch's) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1862, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain B. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 12th (Hatch's) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

The 19th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1862, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain J. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was then afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 13th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 13th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to E, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 6th (Bates) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain A. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was then afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

Remarks:

The 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 3, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates') Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was then afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company M. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 15th (Bates') Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 1st Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 15th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

Remarks

The 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 3, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Hates) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. Company H was transferred to the 7th (Montaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (3d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 13th (Hates) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 25th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

The 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to D, was formed about April 3, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Hates) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1863, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1863, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company B was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Cavalry. Captain R. W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company B. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 13th (Hates) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & I. G. O.

Respectfully returned to the Adjutant General,

War Department,
Washington, D.C.

The records show that James F. Sullivan, private, Company K, 15th Kansas Infantry, U.S.A., enlisted November 2, 1861, in Henderson County. Said Company K became Company G, same regiment, and on the roll of the latter company for January and February, 1864, last on file, he was reported present.

The records also show that one James F. Sullivan, private, Company A, 15th Kansas Infantry, U.S.A., enlisted (date and place same as shown above), and was shown present on the company roll for January and February, 1864, only last on file. A return for November, 1863, shows him present, receiving and issuing rations. No later record found.

Sir:

I this morning again close to Maj A. C. Dickinson the transfer of Privt P. C. Sullivan. I will take it as a personal favor if you recommend this transfer. Sullivan cannot return to my company without endangering his life, on account of a personal and painful difficulty of rather a delicate nature. If I cannot get a transfer I will lose a man.
The transfer of Reese from Co F. S. Regt will be sent down to you which I hope you will also recommend as he is to take the place of Sullivan in my company.

Most Respectfully,
Yours

P.S. If the Col Green is not here to sign that transfer, I will be responsible that he does sign it when he comes; he has assured me that he would -

Dear Mother

It is with pleasure that I write you this morning. I must inform you that I am not well. I have been unwell for some time, hardly able to write this morning. I wrote to mother yesterday. Everything is quiet here. I have not much to write you. I suppose you have been informed of my trip to Eagle Pass before this. After leaving the place for several days, I got sick and had to leave on my way home. I met N. S. Gagnier who told me that if I went home they would send me to Delancey to Bates Regt. I had to remain at home 30 days and I told you that I intended to go on. I went to Delancey and found George there. I was found to have been discharged out of Bates Regiment. George told me that he was dissatisfied with the exchange. I got the word from him that the day I left I was to go to Camp and return. That Bill Johnson & the others would be my friends to assist me and I would be safe. I am glad that I am not at home for it would not have done them any good to have met me on that business. I have never gone with them as a prisoner and I think that they have taught them better than to trouble me in any case. I also learned that the Bates Regt. has been ordered to the Army of Colorado and I have been sent to Delancey stating that they would be safe.

having deserted from the Regiment must have and him down, when I get home I went out to see on Sunday expecting to meet those men but you very well know that I had an idea of being arrested by them I did not want them turned home and Monday I started back to my command not that I was afraid of going over Bates Regiment but knowing that if I went down there that it would give myself and others trouble and thought it best to return and investigate the matter I have wrote to Gen Slaughter concerning the matter Bates, Brown, Gayce and others and have taken a stand against me why it is I want know they all know that they have no claim on me some one and it is known who has done this me as having deserted from Bates Regt I am the charge and those concerned will deny it themselves I have not heard from Slaughter yet if I can't settle the matter without I will go to Houston myself and to Delciseo if necessary the thing must be settled at once I am not afraid of Gen Bates taking me into his Regt and holding me it is unjust and these men know it you can say Bates Gayce or Brown know or any one else that I am at San Antonio where they can find me at any time if they think they have

The background is a light, mottled gray, while the foreground is dominated by a dense pattern of dark, irregular marks, scratches, and specks. These marks are scattered across the entire frame, with some appearing as thin, curved lines and others as small, solid black dots or blotches. The overall effect is one of significant wear, damage, or a very rough, aged material. There are no discernible text or figures present.

General

Sir

I have the honor to state for your information that Private J. E. Taylor was enlisted by me into my Company on the 7th day of May 1864, he having been discharged from Captain A. W. Hargis's Company (1st Texas Cavalry) on the 26th day of April 1863 by reason of having furnished a substitute in said Company and I enclose, as is shown by the enclosed copy of a certificate given him at the time of his discharge.

The substitute so furnished was afterwards transferred to Col Bates Regt and since the repeal of the Substitute Law the Commanding Officer of Bates Regt claims that the Principal (J. E. Taylor) belongs to his Command, and has made a demand of Col Ford Commanding on the Lower Rio Grande, to have Taylor arrested as a deserter from his Command. I would therefore respectfully request to know if the man did or has the right to volunteer into my Company, whether or not the statement by me is not legal, - & whether the law of Congress respecting the Substitute Law, compels the principal to enlist in the same organization to which he formerly belonged.

I am, General

Very Respectfully

The 11th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, Companies A to E, was formed about April 1, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 4th (Bates) Regiment Texas Volunteers. Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and L of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. (1st) Company E was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain W. Hargrove's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was afterward assigned to this command as (2d) Company B. This battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies December 11, 1862, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 11th (Bates) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 11th Texas Cavalry). This organization was organized as Brown's Independent Texas Cavalry and it was organized as the 35th Cavalry Texas Cavalry by the A. G. & C.

Company E was organized May 1, 1862, of recruits and some men transferred from Companies D and I, of the same regiment. Company F was formed June 17, 1862, of men transferred from other companies of this battalion. Company H was transferred to the 7th (Fontaine's) Battalion Texas Artillery March 1, 1863, and subsequently became the 7th Texas Field Battery. Captain E. W. Hancock's Independent Company Texas Cavalry was soon afterward assumed to this command as (3d) Company H. The battalion was increased to a regiment of ten companies November 11, 1863, by the transfer of four cavalry companies from the 13th (Hates) Regiment Texas Infantry (formerly the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers). This organization was also known as Brown's Regiment Texas Cavalry but it was officially designated the 35th Regiment Texas Cavalry by the A. & L. G. O.

Head of Brown Battalion
Dear Sir

By authority of your general order No. 1 of the 24th inst. I proceeded with a detachment composed of officers and men of Co. C. Brown Battalion in order to penetrate in the purpose of carrying out the instructions embodied in Special Order No. 1 of Dec 27th 1862 of Major Chas. H. Smith, District Marshal General.
We left camp on Sunday morning the 1st inst. and reached the point of embarkation on Monday morning - we proceeded down the same river until to the settlers the object of our visit was a secret. On Wednesday we reached the point. we then proceeded to the right immediately under the guns of the batteries of the heavy which we found at anchor about half past 4 P.M. house. One of these batteries was said to be Pulley's Battery. There I found a great number but one mortar in the magazine to the left of three mailed batteries we could see no more when appeared to be a point from which we should from the water to the point in question was the mortar batteries were manned by about 100 men and one officer. The other batteries of that the

(35) men and one horse. The strain is much such that it is not probable to them to pass the water but is captured by a stream - it is my opinion that the water is by those living there that their vessels would tell an easy prize in a small force but did not properly treat the land and the water. The next morning we left the point of the River in cattle (about 100) miles above it and my horse for him to start with his camp. The water was the 1st and 2nd time to drive the cattle to start his flock consisting of about 1000 (3000 head beside family) the driver of the cattle and crossed them over the river. The it necessary to take about 1000 head of cattle, which we could not drive. The number of the camp to drive the cattle was Mr. Haskell being about 1000 head. The the point was to leave the next morning. The he passed with his flock. I left with several horses the next day and with some other mules. The former is the number of driving them in many families the latter to be driven off to the All the cattle in the west are driven to the I allowed Mr. Harris to return his cattle to the until further notice. He had a number of was permitted to all cattle and the sheep

Dear Sir

Will you please enlighten on the following subjects?

1st - The company which I command was mustered into service on the 1st of June. Several of the members were transferred from 12 months Regt, and re-enlisted for the War in my company.

They accepted of a furlough. Are these men entitled to commutation for the time they were absent? And are they entitled to have their forage allowance commuted?

2 - The remaining portion of the company were sent to Sandy Point, out of each of a Quarter Master; they supported themselves for 15 days.

Are they allowed commutation for the same?
If so, please say at what rate - And are officers allowed forage for horses, while absent?

3 - How shall I put the transient men on my subsequent roll? - That is to say, shall I state the time and term of their original enlistment as well as the term of re-enlistment.

4 - Is it necessary to put their whole military history in the Remarks as in the original list?

5 - Are officers who enlisted with the men, and subsequently elected entitled to Priority?

An early answer will much oblige

Dear Sir

In compliance with your orders - I went, last night, with a detachment from Co. G & E. to Collins - I reached there about 9 1/2 o'clock P.M. I found on arrival that the Steamer which had been reported, left there as soon as the two Steamers (Yankees) were in sight.
We took a S.W. Cove - she was ten or twelve miles in advance of the enemy - and appeared to open the distance - I made an effort to report it you by signal on arrival there but could not get the attention of Station at Col. Hall's - I left Collins about 1 1/2 A.M. arrived there at day break.

In compliance with order you today evening Capt Tomkins was sent down the coast with a company of men, to look out for & give protection (if necessary) to a Confederate vessel, expected to be coming in. His Report is enclosed.

I believe I have not officially advised you of the location of the different Companies of this command now on the Island. I now do so to show what posts are guarded by Companies

Company (B) Capt Mayson is stationed at the West End near Signal Station A.

Company (A) Capt Benson is stationed at The Collin-more or Signal Station D. about 10 miles above Company B.

Company (F) Capt Bonds, at Middlemore or Signal Station C. about 6 miles above Company A.

Company (G) Capt Alexander at Signal Station F about 4 miles above Company F. and Company (E) also near Signal Station F. The two last mentioned Companies furnishing Carriers for 1st Sub Div 4th Div, and then 4th Div.

I would respectfully suggest, that the Companies disposed as above, I believe, to be a sufficient protection to vessels which may be beached on the coast, unless a larger force should be landed from the enemy's vessels. Then would be likely to land to destroy a beached vessel.
